Tianjin is the "sister city" of Philadelphia. It is the largest industrial city in Northern China with the largest port and modern container facility in this huge region North of Shanghai. It is also the port city for the capital, Beijing. Tianjin's economic development area (TEDA) has been enormously successful and is one of the very best in China.

Approximately 40 Fortune 500 companies have invested in the Tianjin Free Trade Zone as well as thousands of other companies from dozens of different countries. The Tianjin Free Trade Zone provides on-site assistance to companies regarding approvals, registrations, certifications, and other regulatory issues.

A high-ranking delegation representing Tianjin Free Trade Zone will be present, including:

- ❖ Mr. Wang Fuqiang: Deputy Director, Tianjin Port Free Trade Zone Administration Committee
- ❖ Mr. Shi Xinming: Director, Customs Office of Tianjin Port Free Trade Zone
- ❖ Mr. Zhang Xiawoei: Division Chief, Customs Office of Tianjin Port Free Trade Zone
- ❖ Ms. Yu Mei: Deputy Director, Investment Promotion Department of Tianjin Port Free
